From Where I Stood to Where I Stand

Directions: For each statement, indicate in one color the “hallway position” you chose for each statement. In the space below each question, indicate whether you did or did not change your position, and write your explanation for why you did or did not do so. If you did revise your position, indicate it in a second color.

1. “Judge not, lest you be judged.”
   Strongly Disagree   Strongly Agree
   1    2    3    4    5    6    7    8    9    10
   Did Change / Did Not Change

2. “People in glass houses shouldn’t throw stones.”
   Strongly Disagree   Strongly Agree
   1    2    3    4    5    6    7    8    9    10
   Did Change / Did Not Change

“All that is needed for evil to triumph is for good people to do nothing.”
   Strongly Disagree   Strongly Agree
   1    2    3    4    5    6    7    8    9    10
   Did Change / Did Not Change

Courage is standing firm in being a person of character and doing what is right, especially when it is unpopular or puts you at risk. How and why did Landmesser make a judgment? How did courage play a role in his judgment, decision, and actions?